Employer's Application for Hearing

Employer Instructions:

Complete the Employer's Application for Hearing on the reverse side of this form. The form must be signed, under penalty of perjury, and sent to the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission with supporting documentation. You may submit this form with your electronic signature and supporting documentation via your WebFile account at webfile.workcomp.virginia.gov. At the time the application is filed with the Commission, a copy of the application and the supporting documentation must be sent to the employee and to the employee's attorney, if represented.

The employer must send the employee a copy of the "Employee Instructions" as shown below.

Compensation must be paid in accordance with the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission Rule 1.4 (C). If you are relying on Rule 1.4 (F), please indicate that compensation benefits continue to be paid.

You will be notified in writing if the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission finds it appropriate to suspend compensation benefits or if a determination is made that compensation benefits should not be suspended pending a hearing.

Employee Instructions:

If you wish to contest the suspension of compensation benefits pending a final determination by a deputy commissioner, you must provide the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission with a written statement explaining why your compensation benefits should be continued. This statement and any supporting documentary evidence must be received at the Commission's office 15 days from the date of this application.

If after examining this application, the attached documentation, and the employee's response, the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission determines that compensation benefits should not be suspended, you will be notified in writing and your compensation benefits will immediately be resumed.

If the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission finds it is appropriate to suspend benefits until a final determination can be made by a deputy commissioner, you will be notified either that the case is being referred to the evidentiary docket or that a final decision will be made based on the written record.
